Spotlight on Services

➤ Trades Training

Ever considered a career in the trades? The need for skilled tradespeople in B.C. is increasing, along with exciting, well-paid, employment opportunities. To work as a certified tradesperson, you need training combined with job experience. Trades training typically takes between one to five years. Most apprenticeship programs take four years. The technical training takes place in a classroom or shop setting at a public institution such as a college or institute, or at an approved private training institution. To earn your “ticket” as a certified tradesperson in B.C., you must:

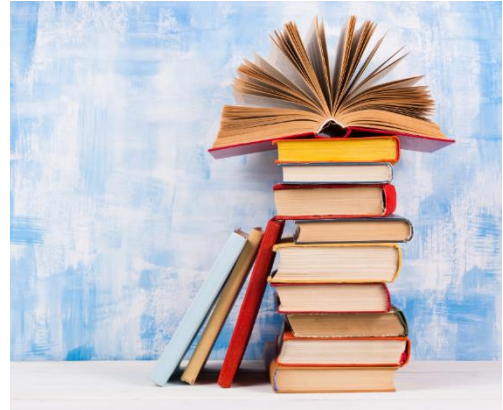

- Complete the required on-the-job hours and the in-school training
- Pass the examinations
- Earn the recommendation of your sponsoring employer.

Getting Started: To learn about the variety of options available and get started on a path to a career in the trades, visit workbc.ca.

➤ Training Financial Supports: All case-managed clients of WorkBC may be eligible for financial supports for costs associated with Skills Enhancement Training Services, including tuition, books and supplies, the cost of travelling to and from a course, incidental training expenses and living away from home.

Getting Started: Call one of the WorkBC offices to find out more and to book an appointment with an Employment Counsellor. Port Alberni – 250-724-4560, Ucluelet - 250-726-4243 or Tofino - 250-725-8805.
